Built in 1896, this quaint island treasure was Sanibel's one-room schoolhouse where many early local residents began their education. In 1964, the building was purchased by actress, Ruth Hunter who starred in the long-running Broadway play "Tobacco Rd". Ms. Hunter and her husband converted the building into a charming one-of-a-kind 92-seat theater.

For many years, the theater was used by the community for local production. Today, Sanibel Island's Old Schoolhouse Theater is home to a very special kind of theatrical magic. J.T. Smith (Artist-In-Residence), along with some of the country's finest and most versatile performers, creates the perfect balance of music, laughter, excitement and pure entertainment to fill every inch of this charmingly intimate theater. Be prepared to be entertained when you attend musical performances filled with high-energy, a fast-pace, and laughs perfect for any age!
